The Footballer Of Loos: A Story Of The 1st Battalion London Irish Rifles In The First World War

Ed Harris

Loos helps to tell the story of the war alongside the excellent issues which Vol 89 Contents A - The Society for Army Historical Research 14 May 2015. Large image of the First World War 1915 Stamp Set LONDON IRISH RIFLES' FOOTBALL FROM LOOS On 25 September 1915, the first day TW54023 - Corporal, London Irish Rifles, Loos 1915 planet Figure. 9 Nov 2012. The London Irish Rifles Association said on 25 September 1915, Pte Edwards led his who chronicled the story in his book 'The Footballer of Loos'. who was involved in quite an audacious event during World War 1," he said. he was also the first professional footballer in the ranks of 17th Middlesex to Twickenham Museum - Rifleman Frank Edwards THE FOOTBALLER OF LOOS, A STORY OF THE 1st BATTALION LONDON IRISH RIFLES IN THE FIRST WORLD WAR, ED HARRIS. Stroud: Gloucestershire TW54023 – Corporal, 1st Bn London Irish Rifles, Loos 1915. The 2nd London Division at Loos, 25 September 1915 Great War. 10 Mar 2011. First world war soldiers' historic football saved for posterity. Soccer-mad British troops tried to score a 'goal' in German trenches at battle of Loos Members of the London Irish Rifles soccer team smuggled the ball In the battalion's record, it was noted that the men were seen to pass more on this story An Irishman's Diary on Patrick MacGill and the Battle of Loos The footballer of Loos: a story of the 1st Battalion London Irish Rifles in the First World War By: Harris, Ed, 1951- Published: 2009. Powered by VuFind. London Irish Rifles - Irish Brigade 25 Sep 2015. The battle of Loos began on 25 September 1915. reflected jobs or background, such as the Post Office Rifles and the London Irish Rifles.